in the News as being seriously ill with small pox, is dead.Sheriffs from the following counties came to the "scratch" yesterday: Mc-meeting our old friend Capt. E. G.

Cheatham, formerly of Granville Co., N. C., now of New York, who represents the mammoth house of Cochran, McLean & Co., Broadway, N. Y. His friends and patrons will be pleased to see him in such fine health and spirits.GRAND LODGE OF MASONS.—The Grand Lodge of Masons met at Masonic Hall Monday night, and was duly organized, Grand Master C. C. Clark, present and presiding.The only business transacted Monday evening was the delivery of the annual address by Grand Worshipful Master Clark, which was a production of rare merit. We regret that our space precludes even a synopsis of the able address.The business before the Lodge yesterday was the consideration of the proposed disposition of St. John's College to the State for an orphan's home. At the hour our reporter left, no conclusion had been arrived at. We defer an expression of opinion in regard to this important movement, believing that the wisdom of the body will direct them right.A LITERARY TREAT.—We have the pleasure of informing our citizens that Miss Jennie Patterson will be in this city the latter part of the week, and will give a public reading on Monday night. Those who heard Miss Paterson last Spring will be glad to hear her charming recitations again, and those who have never heard her will not fail to embrace the opportunity to do so.
Miss Patterson will read in Henderson on Thursday.THE CONSERVATIVE CAUCUS VOTE YESTERDAY.—In an editorial article in this issue we state that Gov. Vance received sixty-six votes on the first ballot in caucus yesterday. We should have added that the greater number of the remaining votes were expressed in favor of the nominee before the adjournment of the caucus, a sufficient number, it was thought, to secure his election.
The result was unexpected to the friends of that gentleman as a consequence, his renomination coming from those who had hitherto opposed him.

No SMALL POX HERE.—Rumors having become current that the small pox had broken out in Raleigh, the Mayor of the city has furnished for publication the following which denies the statement as well as if we had done it ourselves:

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
City of Raleigh, Dec. 3, 1872.

Runners having obtained that small pox had made its appearance in this city, I deem it my duty, as Mayor, to inform the public that there is no foundation for such rumor, that there is not a case in the city.

Chapter 18, City ordinances, constitute the medical faculty of the City, "a Board of Health," and should the disease make its appearance in the City, I am confident that the Board would be promptly reported to the Mayor. In that event, chapter 17, city ordinances, prescribes certain rules for the emergency, which rules would be most rigidly enforced. For the information of the public, I herewith append the Ordinance, and assure the timid, if any there be, that they may visit the City, without the least apprehension of contracting the loathsome disease, and should the disease make its appearance here, the public will be advised.

W. WHITAKER, Mayor.

ORDINANCE.

1. No person, without first obtaining for that purpose the permission of the Mayor or the Board of Commissioners, shall knowingly bring, or allow to be brought, or shall connive at the bringing into the city, any person, in his or her management or control, afflicted with small pox or other mortal disease of a contagious or infectious kind; and every person offending against this ordinance shall forfeit and pay twenty-five dollars and all expenses and charges incurred by the corporation on account of such afflicted person so brought into the city.

2. If any such afflicted person shall come into the city, without permission as aforesaid, he shall, for every such offense, forfeit twenty-five dollars, and the Board of Commissioners shall have power to remove from the corporate limits of the city, to the city hall pits, or to any other place without the limits, and person who may be afflicted with small pox or other mortal disease of an infectious or contagious nature; and it shall be their duty to do so whenever, in the judgment of the Board, such removal may be necessary to prevent the further spread of the disease.

Any person attempting, by threats or force, to prevent the removal to the hospital of any person ordered to be removed thither, shall forfeit one hundred dollars.

THE PUBLIC BUILDINGS IN RALEIGH.

—A. B. Mullet, Architect, makes the following report to Secretary Boutwell in regard to the public buildings in Raleigh:

"No action has been taken in regard to the court house and post office at Raleigh, N. C., the cost of the structure being limited to the sum of $100,000, which is an amount entirely inadequate for the construction of a suitable building. It should be borne in mind that the cost of building is greater in such locations than in the principal cities of the Eastern and Western States. I recommend that no action be taken until the limitation on the cost of the building be increased to a sum that will enable the department to erect a suitable, satisfactory and substantial building, which cannot, in my opinion, be accomplished for a less sum than $230, 000."

UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT—

George W. Brooks presiding—Tuesday, Dec. 3, 1872.

Court met at 10 o'clock.

Civil docket was called peremptorily and several cases disposed of.Only one jury case tried, that of Jno.
S. Derlin against Levi Weinstein, trespass—from Craven county.Smith & Strong for plaintiff; Battle & Sons for defendant. Verdict in favor of plaintiff for $5 damages and interest on cost from commencement of suit.On motion of Hon T. C. Fuller, Col.
R. T. Bennett, of Anson, was admitted an attorney of this Court.MASONIC.—It was our pleasure to meet yesterday in our office Julius A.
Bonitz, Esq., editor of the Masonic Monitor, who is in attendance upon the meeting of the Grand Lodge, now in session in this city. The Monitor is the only masonic journal published in North Carolina, and one of the few published in the South. As a mason we commend both Bro. Bonitz and his valuable journal to the craft, and respectfully suggest that the present opportunity for our brethren of the masonic tie to take a first class masonic and family journal should not be overlooked.

College are in the city. The College ing the accomplished Miss Jennie Paterson, who has been spending some time in Granville as the guest of Mrs.

Lewis, was given one of her entertaining readings at the Osborn House to a very select audience. We learn that she acquired herself in the most felicitous manner and fully corroborated the high opinion she won on her visit to Oxford on a former occasion.THE PRESS.—Dr. H. E. T. Manning, Editor of the Roanoke News, Henry A.
Foot, of the Warrenton Gazette and J.
A. Bonitz, of the Goldboro Messenger, paid our sanction a visit yesterday.

TUCKER HALL.—The second appearance of the Katie Putnam troupe on our boards was a grand success, though not greeted with an overflowing house.

In "Megg's Diversion" Miss Katie seemed perfectly at home, and in the character of "Little Rebel," she came up fully to the expectations of all—There is a "naive" grace in her acting that lends a charm to every impersonation. Her support was unexceptionable.

She will appear to-morrow night in
"East Lynne."ELECTION OF OFFICERS GRAND

THE NORTH CAROLINA LEGIS-LATURE.

FOURTEENTH DAY.

SENATE.

TUESDAY, Dec. 3, 72.

The Senate met at 11 o'clock, A. M., President Morehead in the Chair.Journal of yesterday read and approved.A number of reports were submitted from different Committees.

Messages from the House was received informing the Senate of the passage of a number of bills.

Introduction of Bills.

Mr. McCauley, a bill in relation to the registering of deeds—making certain requirements of the Registers.
Referred.Mr. Fleming, a bill to extend the time of taking out grants in McDowell county, extending the same to 1st day of July, 1873. Referred.Mr. Ellis, of Catawba, a bill to allow the owners of Catawba toll bridge to list the same for taxes. Referred.Mr. Waring, a bill to fix the venue in cases of corporations. Referred.

Motions and Resolutions.

Mr. Fleming, a resolution to pay Sheriffs for holding the Presidential election, that the Treasurer be instructed to pay the Sheriffs in different counties for expenses incurred in holding the late election.

Unfinished Business.

The bill for the relief of "certain" Sheriffs was taken up which bill is intended to reimburse certain Sheriffs for all expenses incurred in bringing convicts to the penitentiary.Messrs. Murphy and Worth wanted the bill referred in order that it may be more thoroughly investigated.Mr. Welch advocated the measure, and thought the State should shoulder the expense. He felt that he could advocate the measure with plausibility, as the county of Haywood had never furnished a convict, and he hoped never would.Mr. Love urged the passage of the bill, believing it to be just and equitable.Mr. Respass favored bill, as to require the counties to pay these expenses would prove most unequal, as the remote counties in the State would be taxed to a large extent, while those adjacent to the State prison would not feel the burden.Mr. N. Wood thought there was no question of the duty of the State to reimburse the Sheriffs for all expenses already incurred. The bill had no reference to the future.Harris, col., wanted it referred to the judiciary committee.Mr. Murphy would advocate the resolution in the judiciary committee reported favorably.

Resolution referred.

Bill on Second Reading.

A bill to amend charter of the town of Statesville. The committee recommend it do not pass.

GREENSBORO, Nov. 30, 1872.

3RD DAY.

Rev. Mr. Wellons, of the Christian Church, addressed the Conference; stating that he came as fraternal messenger bearing to this Conference the Christian greeting of his own; rejoicing in the prosperity of this body of Christians, and desiring that fraternal messengers be appointed to visit his Conference, which was to meet on the Friday before the Sabbath in November, 1873. Success, he stated, depended upon an active ministry, therefore hoped they would sustain their preachers by looking after their wants.

He was responded to by the Rev. Mr. Swain, of the Randolph Circuit, and by the President, in some appropriate remarks.

There was a meeting of the Missionary Society to-day at 11 o'clock, which was addressed by the Rev. Thomas J. Ogburn, of the Mecklenburg Circuit. It was one of the best addresses of the kind the writer ever listened to. It seemed to produce the desired effect, judging from the contributions handed in.

MARRIAGE OF MRS. JAMES A. OATES.

At about five o'clock last evening, in the private parlor of the Southern, a ceremony was performed by Rev. D. Berkeley which united in the holy nuptial bonds Mrs. James A. Oates, nee Alice Salina Merritt, to Mr. Tracy W. Oates. The former is the popular actress and entertainer, and the latter is the business manager and treasurer of the Oates Comic Opera Company. He was a warm friend of the lady's deceased husband, and is said to be a gentleman of fine intelligence and strict probity. Mr. George J. Jones, of Debar's Opera House, and his lady were present, as were the bride's mother, Mrs. Merritt, and all the members of the Oates Company. Mr. Jones gave away the bride. Mrs. Titus received several fine presents, among them a valuable gold watch and chain from her husband.—St. Louis Globe.

THE TIDE OF IMMIGRATION.—During the quarter ending September 30, the migration from Liverpool was enormously increased over that of the preceding quarter. Ninety nine ships left that port for the United States during the three months, carrying 36,491 steerage passengers, and nearly 6,000 cabins; 5,607 emigrants; one left for Victoria and two for South America, all carrying an aggregate of 36,855. Of these 18,279 were English, and only 5,104 Irish. The remainder were Swedes, Danes, and Germans, who had come from Scandinavian and German countries by way of Hull, in preference to shipping from Baltic ports by the German lines of steamers.

Decree rendered in favor of devise of John Vint, involving the title to one eighth of King's Saltworks."

It is seldom that President Grant has done a more graceful, more becoming act, than Friday evening, when, on hearing the news of the death of Mr. Greeley's death, he denied himself the pleasure of attending Mr. Fish's party. One is surprised the Presidential example was not followed by the Secretary himself and each of his invited guests, grandees though they were.

One hundred and three thousand dollars have already been raised in Philadelphia alone for the family of the heroic General Meade, and this large sum is made up by the voluntary contributions of Republicans and Democrats.

That negro lawyer at Washington will be satisfied, it is said, with nothing short of a seat in Grant's Cabinet. The want of self-respect which some negroes exhibit in one of the saddest features of the time.—Louisville Courier Journal.

The Greeley obsequies promise to be the grandest recorded. Chapin's Church is being heavily draped. Over the pulpit is an arch of flowers with the words "I know that my Redeemer liveth," and the pen of the deceased is covered with black, with a harp with broken strings occupying the place of Mr. Greeley. Admission to the body of the church will be obtained only by tickets. The pall-bearers will include Vice-President Colfax and Secretary Boutwell. City Hall Park has been jammed with thousands of persons endeavoring to obtain a last look at the deceased. Crowds file by the coffin at the rate of one hundred a minute. Flags on all the buildings and on all the shipping houses are at half-mast.

The President leaves Washington tonight to attend Greeley's funeral.

The report of General Vincent on the condition of the Freedmen's Bureau called for.

Ten steam war vessels discussed, during which Schofield referred to Banks as having sympathized with efforts to involve the country in a war with Spain.

Banks denied that he had ever sympathized with such efforts; but he had introduced the bill because the Secretary of the Navy had declared to members of the House that he was afraid events had occurred on the Gulf of Mexico which would require the government to be prepared to defend commerce.

The bill enforcing the fishery clauses of the treaty of Washington, was made a special order for the first Tuesday in January. Adjourned.

Washington Affairs.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—The Southern members of Congress express dissatisfaction at the omission from the message of the Mississippi levee question. Morey, who is chairman of the special levee committee, promises to bring the subject energetically before the House at an early day.

The Senate and House levee committees are in consultation for the purpose of perfecting a bill acceptable to the Army Engineer Department.

It appears from the official statement of the Court of Claims, that during the year ending 1st of December, one hundred and twenty cases were decided, seventy of which were on account of proceeds of cotton captured by United States military forces. The aggregate amount of claims on the cotton was two million two hundred and seventy thousand dollars, and the award in these cases was one million four hundred and thirteen thousand dollars. The highest award was four hundred and seventy thousand dollars, or one hundred thousand less than claimed. The Court allowed forty one thousand dollars for proceeds of the sale of sixty nine thousand and bank of Louisiana notes, being the amount of claimant's deposit with that bank at date of the seizure of the same under order of General Banks, August 1863.

A determination on Sunday of Thiers and his Cabinet to remain in the government has served to repel the grave feeling of the uncertainty which followed the action of the Assembly on Saturday last.

Dispatches from all parts of France represent the country as calm, and all parties are awaiting organization of the Committee. Thirty were appointed by the Assembly to draw up laws regulating public powers and presenting conditions of a general responsibility as provided held after resolution of Daufaur have been voted on Friday last.

The committee will meet Thursday. Picard is mentioned for minister of Interior to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of LeFranc.

Tribute of Respect to Mr. Greeley by Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—At a regular monthly meeting of the Associated Press this day the following resolution offered by Mr. Ernest Brooks, and seconded by Messrs Jones and Bangs were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we receive with feelings of very deep sorrow the intelligence of the death of Horace Greeley, founder of the N. Y. Tribune, and for more than 30 years its editor in chief, and one of the original proprietors in organization of the Associated Press of this country.

Resolved, That the newspaper press of the United States losses in him one of its ablest conductors, a writer unsurpassed in the purity of his English, in clearness of expression, and in concise and logical conclusions, drawn from premises which he believed to be founded in truth. In his eventful life we see the success which followed earnest labor, courage, action and manly independence as well as the evidence, a temperance orderly and well spent life. We remember him in connection with our own calling as the faithful apprentice, good printer, good accomplished Editor and liberal proprietor. Losing all this in one for so many years at the head of his profession, our loss is second only to that of the public in whose interests in the press of the country, and in forum of debate, he labored for more than forty years of his life.

Resolved, That our profoundest sympathies go out to the daughters of our late Associate and friend in their double affliction of the loss of mother and father within a brief month, and that we tender them in their great sorrow our sincere condolence and respect.

Resolved, That in the recent death of three of the oldest and most distinguished editors of the journals of this city admonishes us of the uncertainty of life and the instability of all human affairs, and that, as daily teachers and chroniclers of the great transactions of the world, it becomes us to be ready to meet that summons which only a little in advance of us, has called home our late beloved friend and brother.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions, signed by the President and Secretary of the Association, be forwarded to the family of the deceased and published by the Associated Press.

Resolved, That the members of this Association will attend the funeral of the deceased.

(Signed) DAVID M. STONE, Pres.

J. W. ENGLAND, Secretary.
